Dear Parishioners,

I would like to take this opportunity to share with you two events that will be taking place this fall at St. Gregory the Great. The first is our annual Fall Festival on Saturday, October 13th on the parish grounds. The event will begin at 2pm and continue throughout the evening. A huge thank you to Brielyn Atwater and Cheryl Olive for coordinating the event. Let's pause to inhale the fragrance of the Harvest.

Our second event is on Monday, November 5th at 6:30pm in the parish hall. We are welcoming Kendra McClelland from Evangelical Catholic who will speak to us on how to recognize Jesus in ourselves and others. We are employing Evangelical Catholic to enable the formation of small groups and they have been very successful in other parishes, such as St. Brigid's. It's a rare opportunity for us, staff, those in ministry and the community at large to draw aside for some spiritual reflection. The fruit of the harvest indicates fruitfulness in our spiritual lives. Light hors d'oeuvres will be served. Please join us for an evening of sharing, reflection and interaction.

I hope you will avail yourselves of the opportunity to attend both these events to reap the spirit of the harvest which connotes an attitude of thanksgiving. I look forward to seeing you at these events.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rev. Nicholas Clavin
